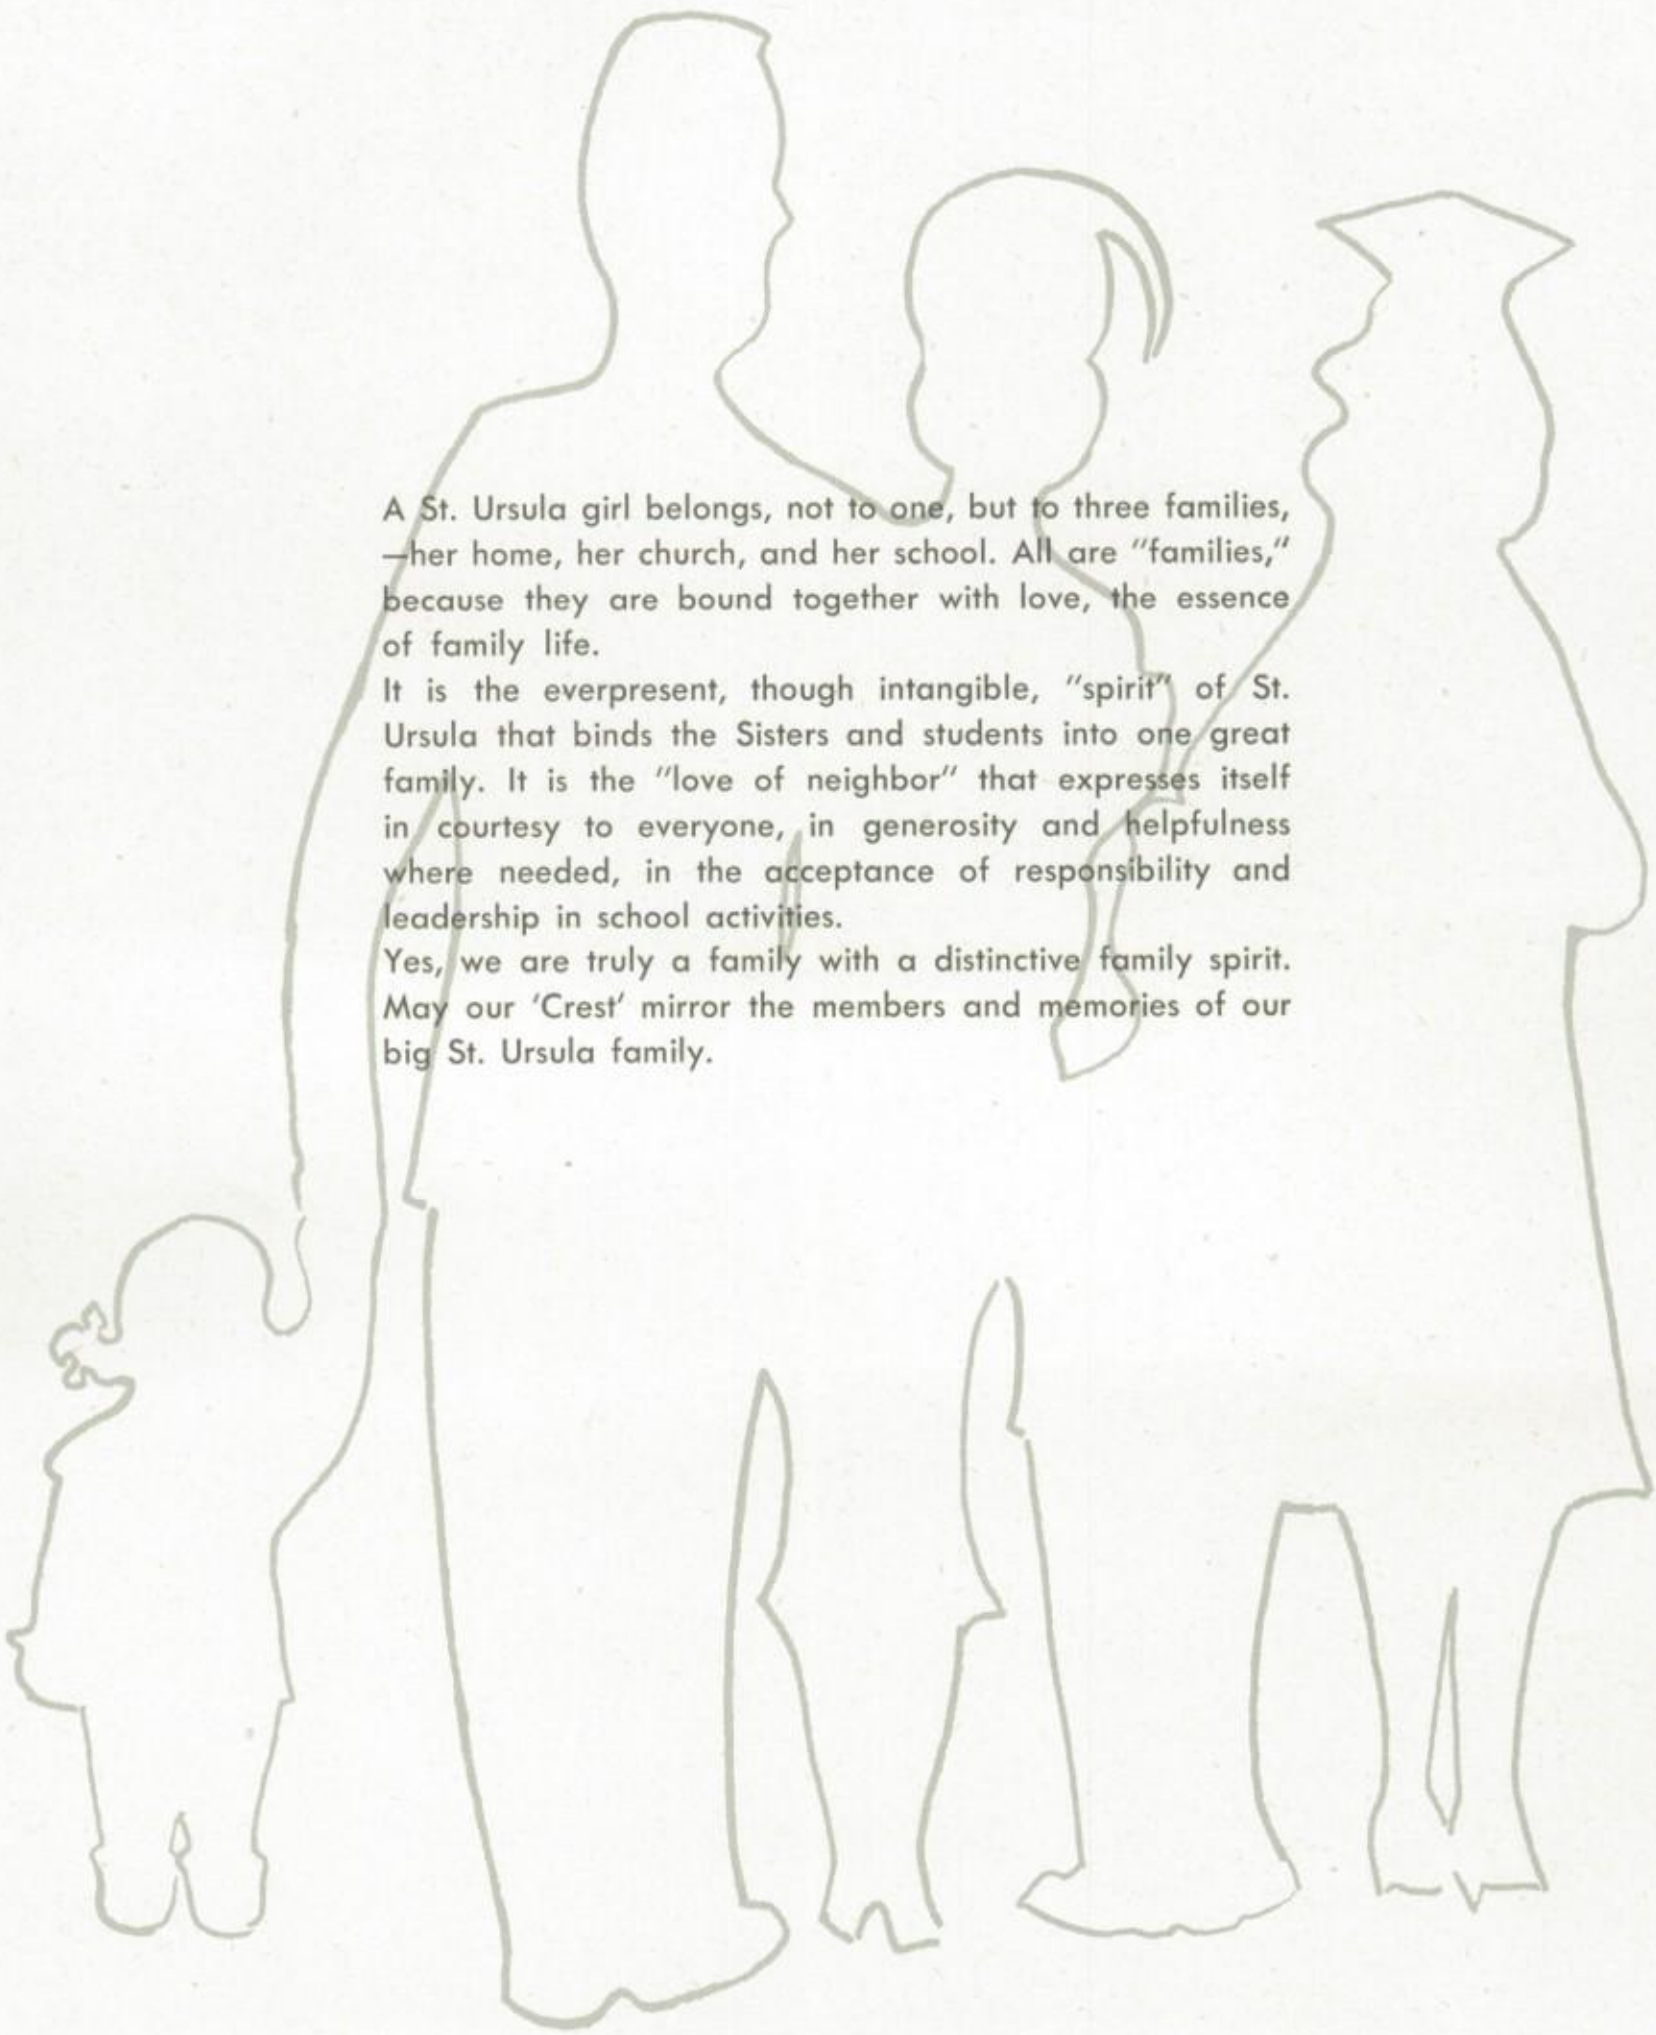
A GIRL AND HER FAMILY . . .



A St. Ursula girl belongs, not to one, but to three families, —her home, her church, and her school. All are "families," because they are bound together with love, the essence of family life.

It is the everpresent, though intangible, "spirit" of St. Ursula that binds the Sisters and students into one great family. It is the "love of neighbor" that expresses itself in courtesy to everyone, in generosity and helpfulness where needed, in the acceptance of responsibility and leadership in school activities.

Yes, we are truly a family with a distinctive family spirit. May our 'Crest' mirror the members and memories of our big St. Ursula family.

Dear Mom and Dad,
To you
we dedicate volume four of the Crest.
We hope that its pages
will unfold to you
the knowledge,
the joy, and the blessings
you have given us
by these four years
at St. Ursula.
Your Loving Daughter,

Carol

OUR SPIRITUAL MOTHER

Mother Mary Helen

Superioress

St. Angela Merici founded her Order of St. Ursula on the principle that school life should be modeled on family life. In her second legacy she instructs her Sisters: "There will be no great difficulty, if you encompass them (your pupils) with true charity. For we see that if mothers according to nature had a thousand children, they would find room for them all in their hearts . . . , for thus works true love. With all the more reason, spiritual mothers can and must act thus, since spiritual love is beyond all comparison, much morepowerful than human love."

PAULA GIESKE
Proof that work and intelligence mix Paula's our "Prexy" for fifty-six.

Class of '56

As "Big Sisters" in our SUA family, during this, our last year, we have tried to preserve that cherished spirit of our school—the friendliness, the thoughtfulness for others, the mutual sympathy and understanding which have always characterized Ursuline education. The time has come for us to pass on the torch to our younger sisters. We hand it to them with the prayer that it shall burn more brightly in the years to come.

The "spirit of St. Ursula" is personified in our three top misses, Molly Giller, GAA president; Paula Gieske, class president; and Marjorie Thiel, sodality prefect.

PATRICIA ANDERSON
Patty's tops; she's number one
On the senior list and lots of fun!

PEGGY ANDERSON
Give red-haired Peggy any part;
She'll steal the show and steal your heart.

BARBARA ANN AX
Barb's quiet voice and pretty ways
Make her a friend worthy of praise.

RITA ANN BISCHOFF
Mademoiselle is quite "la belle,"
She writes for "Nous Memes" and edits as well.

MARILYN CARROLL
All straight "A's." How did she gain it?
Marilyn insists she "can't quite explain it."

VIRGINIA BOWLING
Blue-eyed Ginny's favorite course
Was learning how to ride a horse.

MARYBETH CRONIN
For long range photos or a close-up shot,
Betsy's sure to be on the spot.

MARTHA COLDIRON
Mona Lisa—a smile well known;
But Marti's laugh is all her own.

To Carol,
a real nice sophomore.
I hope that the rest of your time at SHS is a wonderful, swell
and cheerful as mine was.
Marybeth

ROSEMARY DORNEY
If a party needs planning, leave it to Ro;
She's the gal who can make things go.

ELAINE DOWLING
Beautiful and gracious describes Elaine,
A combination that's hard to attain.

ADRIENNE FRERICHS
Adie, always willing to donate a cake,
But does our "first bride" know how to bake?

To Carol,
a very pretty and nice Gilly, always remember and have lots of fun
at SHA and
Senneto Ha-Ha
Love Molly

MOLLY GILLER
Molly's a popular Irish lass;
In GAA she's hard to surpass.

To Cove,
a real darling
7 Sophomore Always keep your cute chin up remember -
Sue.

SUSAN GRIEME
For all these qualities Sue stands apart,
She's popular, pretty, and oh, so smart!

LOIS GOEKE
How fortunate is Lois, for it appears
She's attended St. Ursula for all twelve years.

CAROLYN HODAPP
An hour with Carolyn is time well spent;
Her quick repartee will "make" the event.

BARBARA ANN HAUCK
The secret of Barb's keen personality
Is her sparkling smile and endless vitality.

CAROL ANN IMBUS
No matter which college bears Carol's name,
Her heart will go to Notre Dame.

JOAN KARASEK
At science and math Joan's a "wiz;"
She rates an "A" in every quiz.

MARY CAROL KLARK
Who's the girl who will make her mark"?
Her friends all say it's Mary Carol Klark.

ARLENE LEHR
A coiffure like Arlene's is very rare,
It takes 200 pins to put up her hair.

MARY DEE LUTKEHAUS
A tip to the writer of her biography—
Just drop the "Dizzy" and call her Dee.

DONNA LOBERT
No one's health will ever get worse
As long as Donna's around as a nurse.

BARBARA NAISH
Words and music are Barb's special gift;
Her talking and playing give us a lift.

CAROL MEYER
There in no virtue that can ever outweigh
Carol's quieat and ladylike way.

NANCY NOLTING
Nancy's always cheering for "Klu;"
And her favorite cheer? It's "Va-va-va-lu!"

NANCY NURRE
What's Nancy's aim? Here's a clue—
She really shines in Home Ec II.

MARY PATRICIA O'BRIEN
A knowledge of places and where they are
Gives Punkie the title, "Geographical Star."

Dear Carol
You're a real pretty Soph
& more Have fun
in TC.
Love
Denise
K

ANGELA PAOLELLA
She's really not in a "rut,"
Just an Angel with a cherub cut.

MARJORIE THIEL
In balance and poise Marge heads the cast;
But in finishing lunch she's always last.

NORMA SWARTS
The varsity players daily exclaim,
"We want Norm in the hall of fame."

JACLYN WILLIAMS
Jackie's a gal with a turned up nose
Whose hints are tops on boys and clothes.

To Carol,
One of prettiest
little sophomores I knew!
Keep as sweet as you are.
Love fun at S.H.A.

Once Upon

JACLYN WILLIAMS: "You mean there's a difference?"
BARBARA NAISH: "Do you want something around here?"
NANCY NOLTING: "It was so nice of you to come."

ARLENE LEHR: "But officer, we're only kids."
BARBARA SHEA: "He's a living doll."
NANCY NURRE: "Peace!"

MARY JO SCHANZLE: "I told you to stop following me."
PEGGY ANDERSON: "I didn't mean to, Patty."
MARY PAT O'BRIEN: "But he's my bunny rabbit."

MARY DEE LUTKEHAUS: "Now where did I put it?"
ELAINE DOWLING: "Why, you big bully."
ADRIENNE FRERICHS: "Imagine her walking away like that."

MOLLY GILLER: "Faith and begorra, it's heaven."
PAULA GIESKE: "Oh, I'm so glad you could make it."
PATTY ANDERSON: "And don't do it again, Peg."

JOAN KARASEK: "It's all mine."
SUE GRIEME: "You really mean it don't you?"
SISTER MILDRED: "Humph! I wonder."

CAROL IMBUS: "Oh, let me see it!"
JOYCE WAGNER: "I'm so happy I could cry."
KAY SCHUBELER: "It just tickles me."

CAROL MEYER: "No camera, no picture."

A Time

BARBARA AX: "I'm a little short on cash."
MARGIE THIEL "Well don't just stand there, do something."
BARBARA REGAN: "Who me?"

MARGIE SMITH: "That's for me."
MARTHA COLDIRON: "I'm so glad we're going together."
MARY CAROL KLARK: "You new around here?"

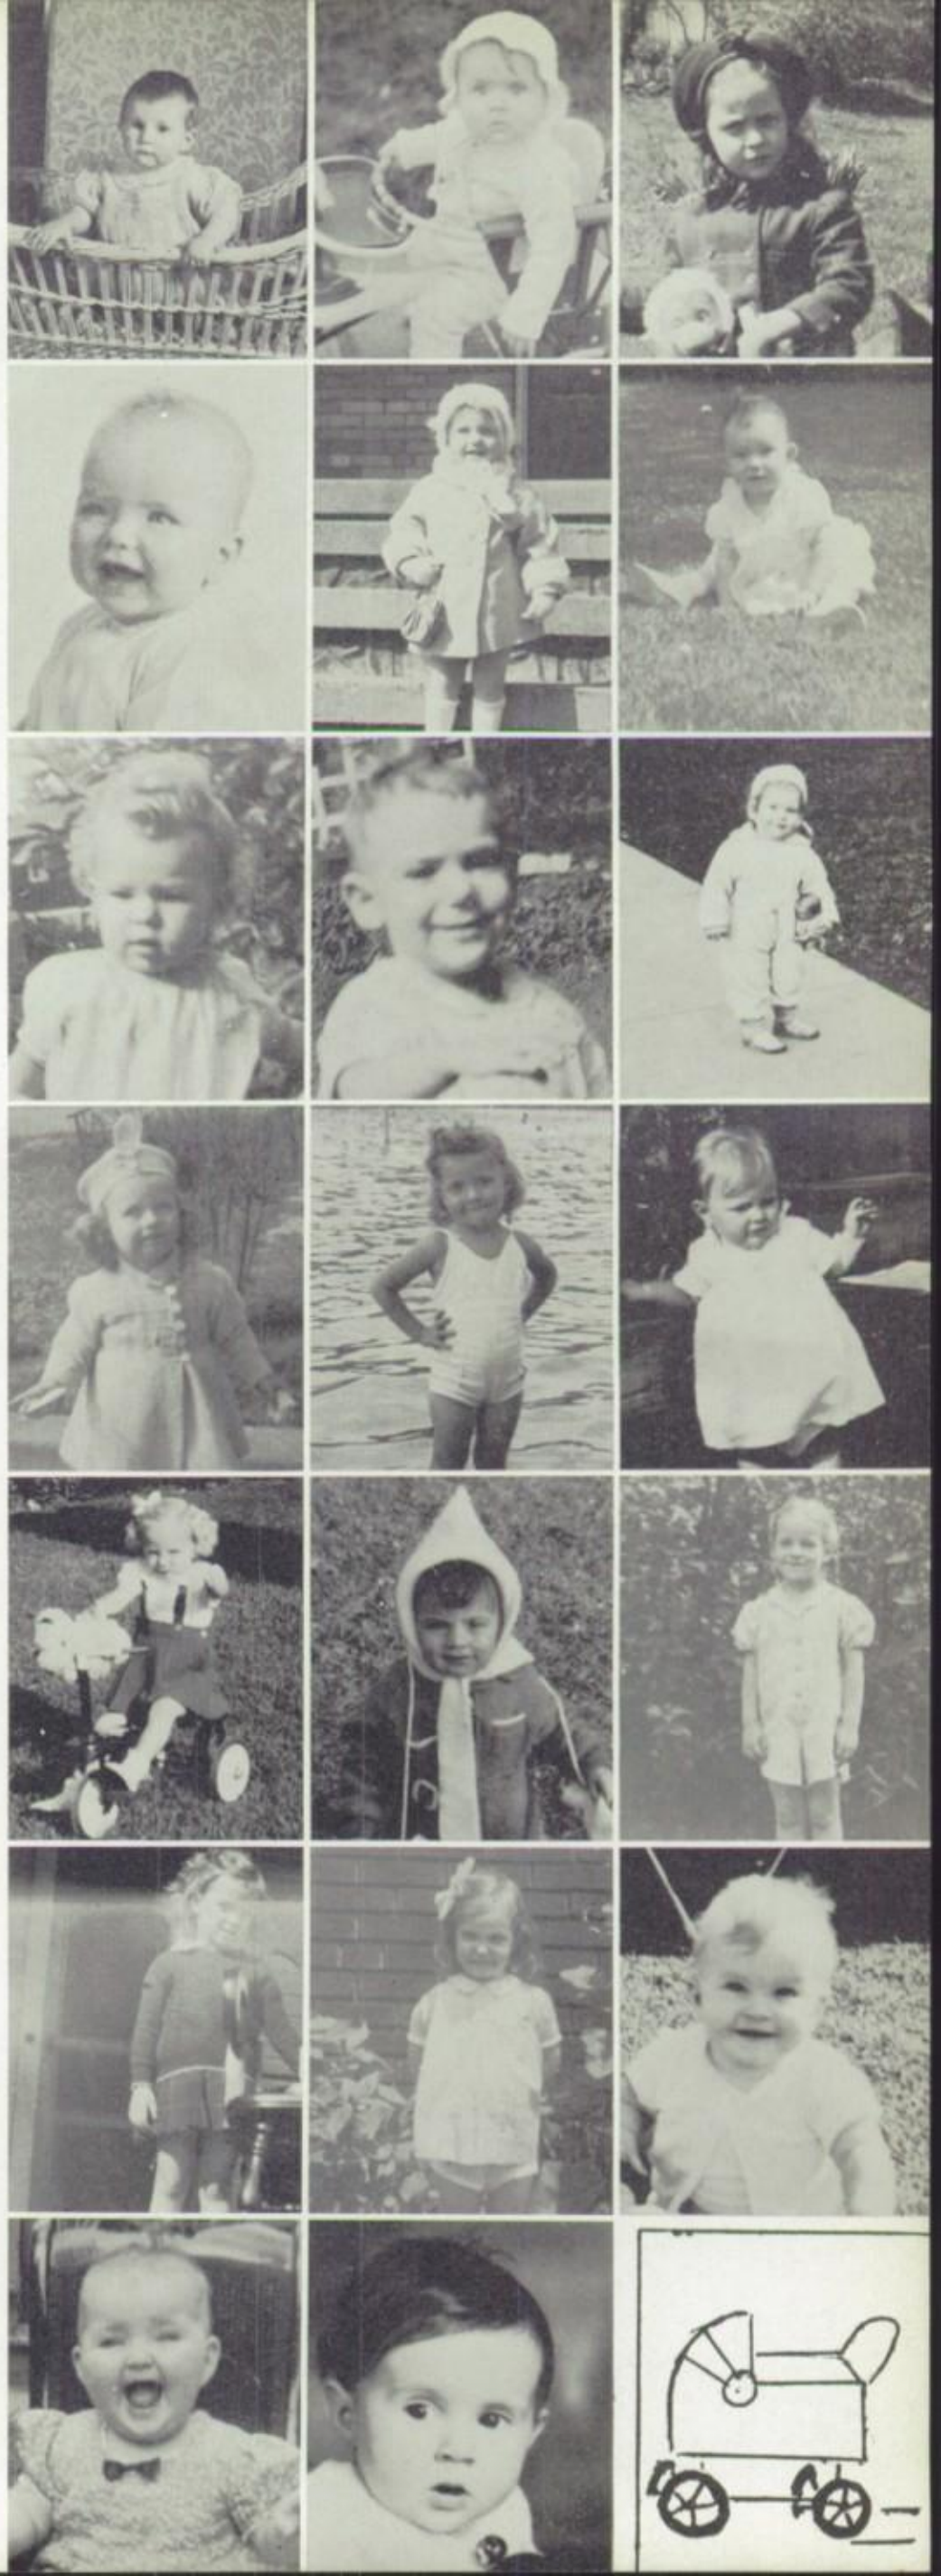
CAROLYN HODAPP: "Don't worry. I'll think of something."
ANGELA PAOLELLA: "It was about this high."
DONNA LOBERT: "Say, what's going on up there."

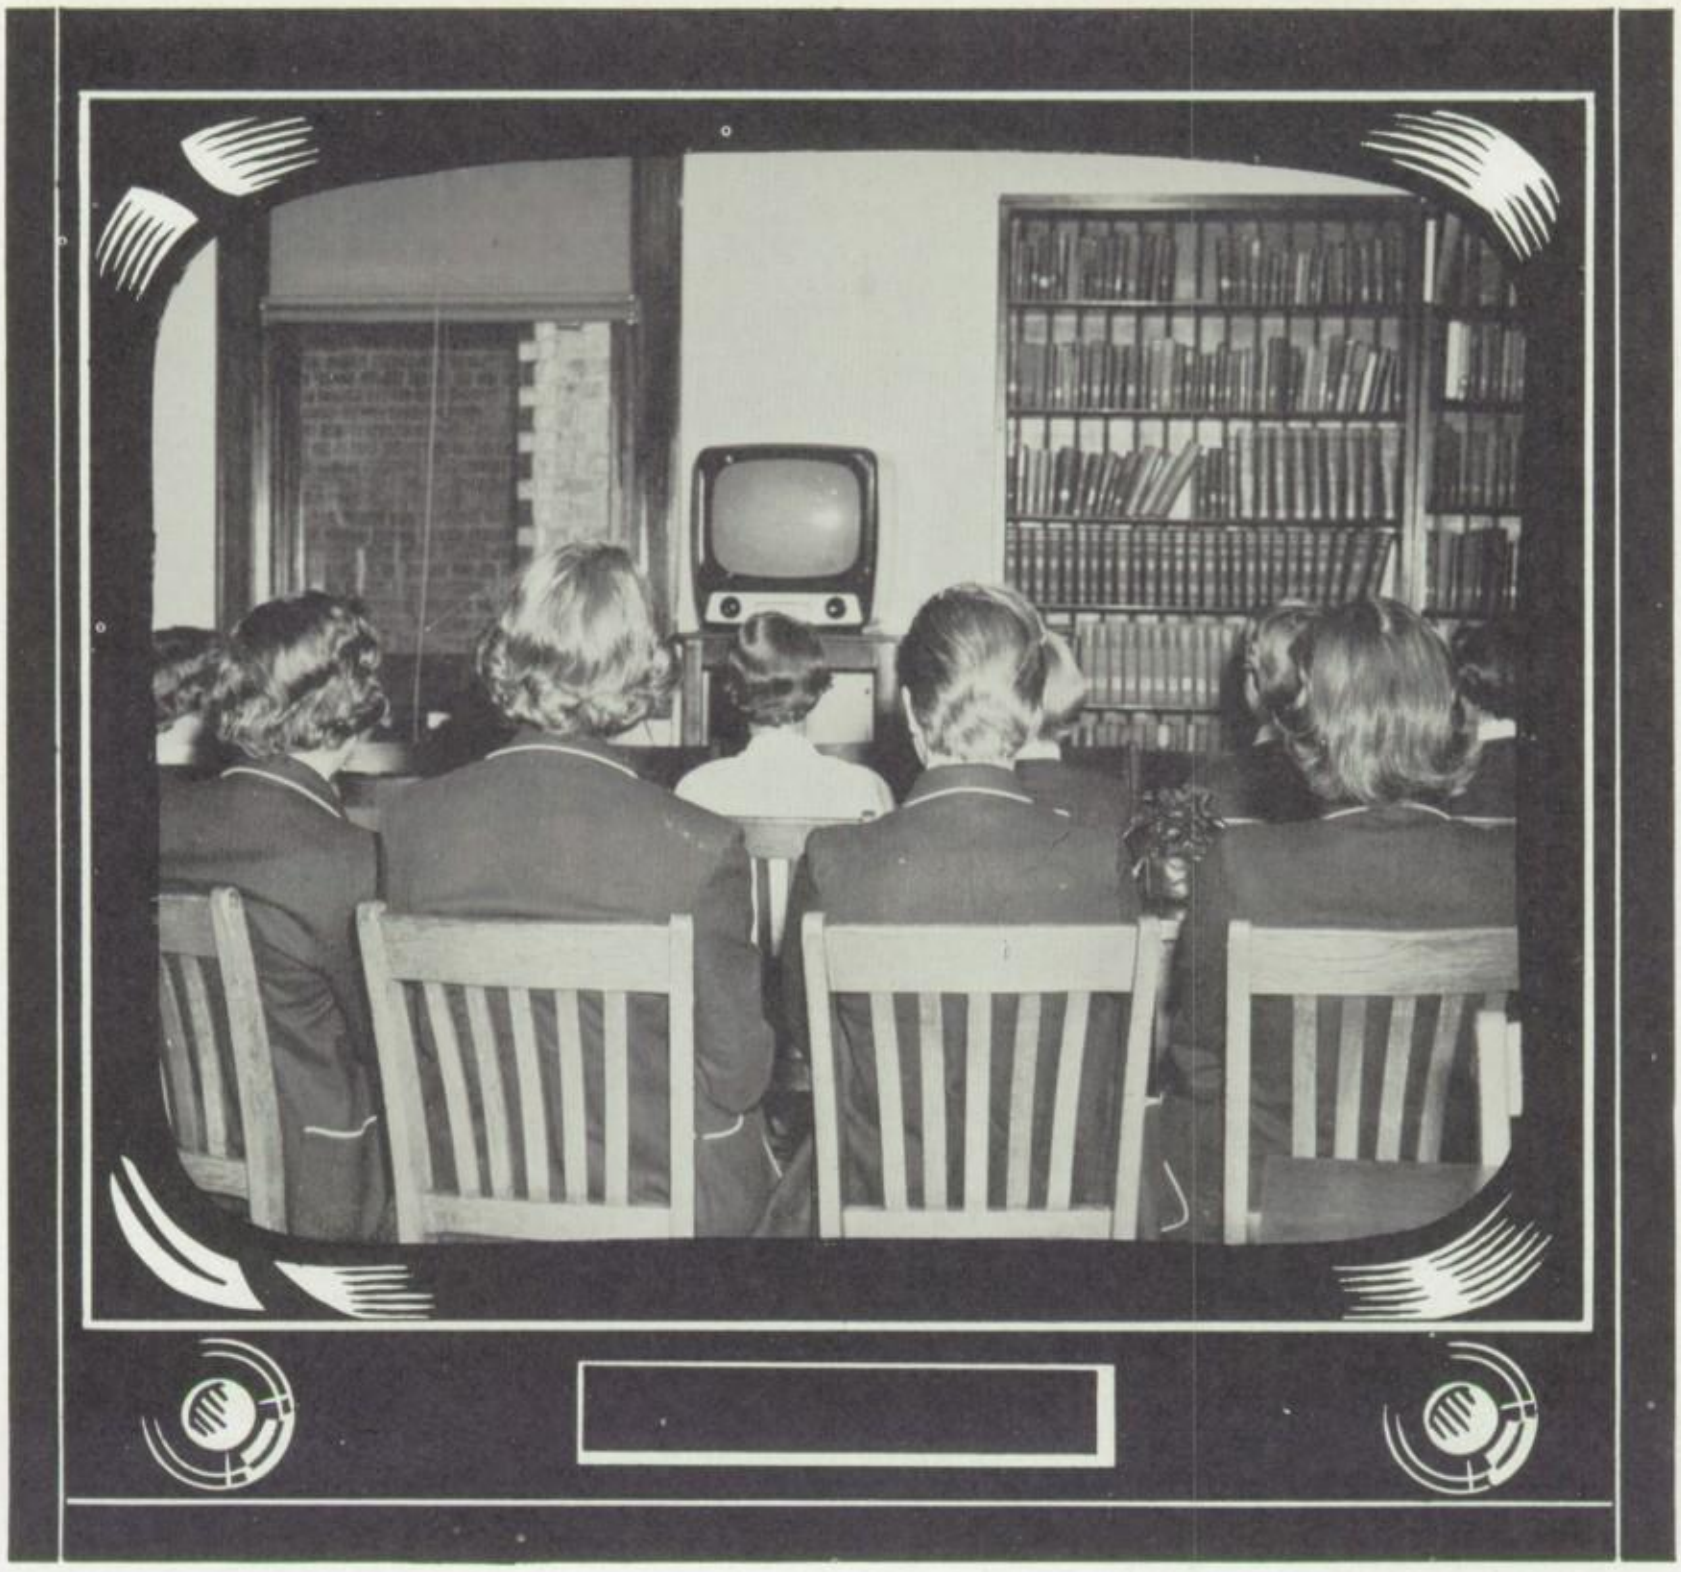
MARILYN CARROLL: "You mean, I'm a star?"
JUDY SCHAEFER: "I don't like to brag, but . . ."
RITA BISCHOFF: "Take that awful thing away."

BARBARA HAUCK: "I've seen you before."
SALLY SINGER: "Do you like the off-the-shoulder gloves?"
JANICE STALF: "Ahh! Your just kidding me."

ROSEMARY DORNEY: "I don't think I like you."
NORMA SWARTS: "It was all kind of fuzzy-wuzzy."
GINNY BOWLING: "Can I come too?"

MARYBETH CRONIN: "Laugh, I thought I'd die."
SISTER IMELDA: "Oooo! What's that?"
LOIS GOEKE: "Shh! Baby sleeping!"





"How do you read a newspaper?" Judy Schaefer, Marilyn Carroll, Marybeth Cronin, Kay Schuebeler, Sue Grieme and Elaine Dowling, the Crest staff, discuss this with their moderator and principal, Sister Rose Angela, in preparation for an educational TV program. BELOW: Seniors spend their 10:10 bell watching the results.

A dillar, a dollar,
A seventh grade scholar;
Your life is mighty slow.
But study hard for one more year,
And you will be a "pro".

Grade 6

Sing a song of six graders
Voices loud and clear,
Four and twenty boys and girls
Bright and so sincere.
For when their eyes are opened
And new thoughts come their way,
They'll grow in confidence and poise
At work, at prayer, at play.
